Does your library promote the use of any of the following public domain ebook sites to your library patrons (Internet Library, Project Gutenberg, HathiTrust, International Children's Digital Library) and how extensive is the use of these resources and other similar sites at your library?

- 1) All of them. I am not sure of the use.
- 2) Project Gutenberg - some use as promoted along with OverDrive
- 3) Yes, but our website is not easy to use so patrons may not see them.
- 4) Project Gutenberg. Unable to know who uses.
- 5) Yes, Project Gutenberg. Usage unknown.
- 6) Project Gutenberg, through OverDrive. 1 of borrowing.
- 7) No
- 8) Project Gutenberg - about 300 circs per month
- 9) We do not really promote them.
- 10) No. There is a link for it, and people find it, but it's less than .01 of our circulation.
- 11) Project Gutenberg
- 12) Yes
- 13) No
- 14) Not currently used. Aiming to encourage library committee to get our library to take up e-resources
- 15) yes, use is low
- 16) No
- 17) 17) Digital Public Library of America (minimal use)
- 18) No
- 19) Project Gutenberg plus others not mentioned here, but we don't track usage.
- 20) Project Gutenberg - have a link on our web page and featured on OverDrive. Has regular, good use but only maybe 7 of use overall. Internet Library has link but not used much.
- 21) The town also donates to Madison Public Library and our patrons can get ebooks thru them at no cost.
- 22) Do not use
- 23) Yes
- 24) No
- 25) None
- 26) Project Gutenberg but will add the others.
- 27) No
- 28) No
- 29) No
- 30) Sometimes
- 31) We do recommend these free ebook sites for the use of classic or public domain titles but there is no way to track their usage so we don't really have a way of knowing if patrons are using them. If there was an app for smartphones and tablets

- that combined the public domain ebook content, we would definitely recommend that to patrons as well.
- 32) We promote about 20 free eBook sites - but we do not have any use statistics.
 - 33) Yes, data not collected
 - 34) Yes we promote them on facebook and our website.
 - 35) Yes, we do. The use is moderate.
 - 36) Project Gutenberg Not sure.
 - 37) Internet Library, Project Gutenberg, HathiTrust, International Children's Digital Library Provide links and some shelf talkers
 - 38) No
 - 39) Project Gutenberg, not sure how much it is used
 - 40) Yes, Project Gutenberg - used heavily during school periods due to high school and early universityn english texts being located here.
 - 41) No
 - 42) No
 - 43) Tumble Books, Project Gutenberg
 - 44) Yes we promote these sites. I don't have that usage figures.
 - 45) Yes--Gutenberg and Librivox. Use is very low.
 - 46) Yes -- statistics are unknown
 - 47) Yes, Project Gutenberg. We do not have a record of how much it is used.
 - 48) We will promote all of the above when we go live with our Overdrive consortium the middle of this month(July), but so far we have only loaned e-readers to our most reliable patrons with a few books on each which we purchased
 - 49) We don't particularly, although Project Gutenberg books are available through OverDrive, I believe.
 - 50) No real promotion, not much use.
 - 51) Yes. we have registered moderate use of these sites.
 - 52) NO
 - 53) No
 - 54) No
 - 55) No
 - 56) Project Gutenberg is linked from our website, but I have no statistics for usage.
 - 57) No
 - 58) No
 - 59) No
 - 60) No promotion
 - 61) Internet Library and Project Gutenberg few patrons use these resources
 - 62) Project Gutenberg is in our online catalog along with LibriVox
 - 63) Yes, we provide links and catalog records. We do not have a way of measuring this usage.
 - 64) Yes
 - 65) No
 - 66) not really, promotion is on case by case basis (if it solves a problem), we don't imagine many are using these or if our promotion of them would increase use.
 - 67) We do promote, the use is quite low
